

From: Britt Festivals <marketing@brittfest.org>

Subject: Britt Member Notes January 2011

Format: HTML and plain text (show plain text version)

You're receiving this newsletter because you are a Britt Festivals Member.
Having trouble viewing this email? View it in your browser.

Friday, January 21, 2011

HAVE YOU RENEWED YOUR BRITT MEMBERSHIP?

Thank you to all members who have renewed with Britt for 2011! We are grateful to each of you, as membership support helps sustain Britt and allows us to fulfill our mission to invite audiences and artists to celebrate the joy of live performance, the power of community and the magic of the Britt Experience. You also help us to help new listeners discover the wonder of music and performance through our Britt Institute programs. Each day as memberships come in, we appreciate our Britt Community even more. If you haven't renewed your membership yet, connect with Britt and make your membership gift today. Renew online, by phone (541-779-0847), in person or by mail at 216 W. Main Street, Medford, 97501. Photo by Josh Morell.

MEMBER PAUL SCHROEDER WINS GUITAR SIGNED BY BRITT 2010 ARTISTS

Save the date for the Britt Bash!

The Britt Bash, our annual gala fundraising dinner, will be Saturday, April 16 at the Rogue Valley Country Club in Medford. The evening includes a gourmet dinner, and live and silent auctions including exclusive "only at the Britt Bash" items!

Mark your calendars for a fun night that benefits Britt and our education programs. See brittbash.org to order your tickets or for more information.

Season Announcement is April 6

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, April 6. We'll announce the exciting 2011 Britt summer lineup that evening, and the full season will be posted online that night. Member pre-sale packets will